

WRFU FORM 6 – NOTICE OF APPEAL FORM

Bylaw 14 - Appeals

- 14.1 Appeals may relate to varying subject matters listed below and are dealt with as listed below:
- a) Appeal against a decision of WRFU Disciplinary Committee is dealt with by WRFU Appeal Committee – see By-Laws 11-8, 13.5-13.7 and the Black Book;
 - b) Appeal against a decision of the WRFU Appeal Committee – see Black Book;
 - c) Appeal against a decision of the Rugby Board (but excluding a decision of the WRFU Disciplinary Committee which is dealt with under a. above) is by way of review by the WRFU Board of Directors - see Rule 10.13 of Constitution. When urgency applies, the Rugby Board may shorten the time period involved in the appeal process.
- 14.2 To lodge an appeal under By-Law 14.1(c), a WRFU Notice of Appeal Form (WRFU Form 10) must be completed and submitted to WRFU within any applicable time period.

Name of person lodging the appeal: _____

Are you lodging the appeal on behalf of the club of a player? Yes / No

If yes, written authority from the player concerned must accompany the Notice of Appeal

The decision being appealed against:

The date of the decision being appealed against: _____

The specific grounds for the appeal:

Signed: _____ Club Position (if applicable): _____

Timeframes for lodging notice of appeal:

- A: Appeal against decision of WRFU Disciplinary Committee
See Bylaws 11.8, 13.5-13.7 and the NZRU Black Book
Notice of appeal must be accompanied by $500 + GST deposit
- B: Appeal against a WRFU Appeal Committee decision
7 days + any deposit applicable
See NZRU Black Book
- C: Appeal against a decision of the Rugby Board (ie, complaint/dispute)
See Rule 10.13 of the WRFU Constitution and By-Law 14.1 (c)